

July 13, 2005

The Ellettsville, Indiana, Town Council met in a special session at 6:30 p.m., Wednesday, July 13, 2005. Members present were Patrick Stoffers, President; Lisa Creech, Phillip Rogers, and Dennis Williamson. Sandra Hash, Clerk-Treasurer; Jim Ragle, Street Commissioner; Jim Davis, Fire Chief; Ron McGlocklin, Town Marshal; Frank Nierzwicki; Director of Planning Services and Mike Farmer, Utility Manager also attended the session.

Intern from Indiana University

Frank Nierzwicki requested permission to apply for an intern to work for the Town of Ellettsville from September, 2005 through May, 2006. The cost is $1,000. He discussed it with the Main Street group and they are willing to split it with the Town. They would pay $500 and the intern would split their time between the Town and Main Street. The Council agreed to proceed with the request. The Town’s $500 will be paid from the Miscellaneous Professional appropriation. Frank will be responsible for overseeing the intern.

Year 2006 budgets

There was a round table discussion with the Council and the supervisors resulting in a few minor changes to the budgets for 2006.
